Term 3, End of Week 10 Roundup

Term in Review

It certainly has been a busy term with a number of events. We had many sports events – SAPSASA basketball carnival, cricket clinics for the whole school, soccer carnival, SAPSASA athletics, SAPSASA volleyball carnival. The Choir had their rehearsal at Magic Millions and their Festival of Music concert at the Festival Theatre. 34S and 04D went on an excursion to the Maritime Museum. We had two Pupil Free Days where staff were involved in training and a School Closure for everyone. Lunchtime activities including Lego League, guitar, the Have-A-Go-Show and chess started this term. They will all continue next term, as well as a few others.

Staffing

Congratulations to Mikhaela Reyes and Anna Pok for gaining permanency at Richmond from the start of 2023.

NAPLAN

NAPLAN results were distributed earlier this week. Each student who sat NAPLAN received an envelope containing the Student Report, the Standard for Educational Achievement and a Summary Report.

Drakes Supermarket Community Dollars program - reminder

If you shop at Drakes, you can now scan your bar code either by using a bar code supplied by the school or on the myDrakes app on your phone. Each time you swipe your bar code, the school receives a donation from Drakes supermarkets.

If you would like a bar code and a plastic tag they are available at the front desk.
