2023 Term 2, End of Week 2 Roundup

It is very hard to believe that two weeks of the term are already gone. There is a lot of learning happening all around the school, which is great to see.

Staffing

You may have noticed that we have a new Business Manager in the finance area of the front office – we welcome Josh Reiter to our staff.

We have a number of pre-service teachers doing their placements this term. They are from both University of South Australia and Flinders University. We currently have 1st years, 2nd years, a 3rd year and a final year. We will continue to have pre-service teachers throughout the year.

Skoolbag's new name - Audiri

Skoolbag is now called Audiri. The app name and icon just changed on your phone if you already had it downloaded – you did not have to do anything. There is an “Events” section on Audiri. This section will have all of our events that are in the “Upcoming Events” section in the Roundup – another way of keeping up with everything.

Excursion to Hahndorf Farm Barn

12A and 02P went to the Hahndorf Farm Barn on Monday. The students had a fantastic time.

SAPSASA Cross Country

12 students attended the SAPSASA Cross Country with Mr Nguyen on Tuesday afternoon. Please see separate post for more information and a photo.

Oliphant Science Awards

If students are interested in participating in the Oliphant Science Awards, please see Mrs Viridi in the Science Room.

We wish all the mums a Happy Mothers' Day on Sunday.
