2024 Term 1, End of Week 7 Roundup

We hope everyone enjoyed the long weekend and took advantage of the hot weather.

Pupil Free Day

The staff participated in a full day of training on Tuesday based on the Traits and Crafts of Writing. Bobbie Cameron (consultant) worked with us all day on exploring writing through mentor texts, writing conferences and planning. It was a very worthwhile day and we thank the community in supporting the professional development of staff on the Pupil Free Days.

NAPLAN

NAPLAN testing has started for the Year 3 and 5 students. The main testing will be completed by the end of Monday. Catch-up tests will continue throughout next week.

Harmony Week

Next week is Harmony Week. Students will be involved in activities all week, with the grand finale of a celebration on Friday @ 2pm. The celebration will consist of a dress up day (cultural dress or wear orange) and a parade.

Scholastic Book Club

The Book Club brochures have been given out to students. Orders can only be made online. The due date for orders is the 18th March.

Soccer Registrations

The soccer registration forms were sent out on Friday for any student who is interested in playing soccer for the school during 2024. Please refer to your email for more information and if interested, fill out and return the consents.
