2025 Term 1, End of Week 4 Roundup

The term is flying by and the school is very busy with lots of learning opportunities and extra-curricular activities.

Student Leadership

There are many opportunities for students to be involved in leadership within the school. The upper primary students have recently had the opportunity to apply for a number of positions within the school.

Nine students have been chosen as Ambassadors for the school. They are Danish, Stavroula, Parthiv, Isabella, Ann, Harry, Nadine, Harvey and Prem.

Nine students have been chosen as the Senior Action Team. They are Hao Hao, Tomiee, Charlise, Sai, Daniel K, Samantha, Joanna, William H and Divyant.

Fifteen students have been chosen for the new positions of Library monitors. They are Harshant, Prabhath, Hana, Lakshya M, Amelia, Sydney, Manuel, Emily, Danielle, Belinda, Noshitha, Elana, Khadija, Merin and Sheliza.

The Junior Action Team (from Reception to Year 4) will be starting later in the year.

Flags, South Road sign and Sports Day Captains will be announced soon, so stay tuned!

School Tour

On Monday we had a school tour. These opportunities are always lovely to share the amazing things happening at Richmond Primary School with new families.

Year 6 Aquatics

On Tuesday all of the Year 6 students went to West Lakes for their Aquatics. They participated in activities including sailing, kayaking, snorkelling and surfing/boogie boarding. Check out the class See Saw page for photos.

Dream Big

34R, 04D and 05G are all involved in a music project with Carclew for Dream Big. This program runs over a number of weeks. Check out the class See Saw pages for photos and more information.

RAA Street Smart

This week we have had the RAA Street Smart program visit on Monday, Wednesday and again tomorrow (Friday). All classes are involved in a session on road safety. Topics include

- : Pedestrian Safety and Passenger Safety
- : Pedestrian, Passenger and Wheeled Safety
- : Pedestrian Safety, Wheeled Safety and Maintaining your Wheels
- : Pedestrian, Passenger and Wheeled Safety
